6. Notices of Motion
7. Statements (See Appendix)
8. MOTION : THE NEED FOR THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE TO CONDUCT CIVIC EDUCATION ON THE ROLES OF THE COUNTY ASSEMBLY AND THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE IN LAMU COUNTY

AWARE THAT, Article 174 of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010, provides for the objects of devolution, including the promotion of democratic and accountable exercise of power and enhancement of public participation in governance;

FURTHER AWARE THAT, the County Assembly is constitutionally mandated to legislate, represent the people and exercise oversight over the County Executive Committee and other county organs;

COGNIZANT THAT, the County Executive is responsible for the implementation of county legislation, policies and development programs aimed at improving the welfare of the residents of Lamu County;

CONCERNED THAT, many residents of Lamu County are yet to fully understand the distinct roles and responsibilities of the County Assembly and the County Executive, resulting in misconceptions, misplaced expectations and limited public participation in county affairs;

NOTING THAT, civic education is a critical tool for empowering citizens with knowledge on governance structures, promoting accountability and enhancing public involvement in decision-making processes;

FURTHER NOTING THAT, an informed citizenry is essential for the successful implementation of devolved governance and for strengthening the relationship between the people and county institutions;

NOW THEREFORE, this County Assembly urges the County Executive Committee Member responsible for Public Service, Devolution and Civic Education to develop and implement a comprehensive civic education programme across all wards in Lamu County to enlighten residents on:

1. The constitutional roles and functions of the County Assembly and the County Executive.
2. The legislative, representative and oversight mandates of the County Assembly.
3. The responsibilities of the County Executive in policy implementation and service delivery.
4. The importance of public participation in county governance.
5. The appropriate channels through which citizens can engage with county institutions and seek services.

FURTHER RESOLVES that the County Executive allocates adequate resources towards continuous civic education programs to ensure that all residents of Lamu County are adequately informed about their rights, responsibilities and the functions of the two arms of county government.
